MARINE AFFAIRS.

ARRIVAL OF THE STEAMSHIP PACIFIC FROM NEW ORLEANS.—This fast steamship, under the command of Nathaniel Jarvis, took a pilot at 12 o'clock, Monday night, and arrived up to 7 o'clock Tuesday morning, from New Orleans. She left the Bay at 8 o'clock on the evening of Monday, 10th inst., at which time she discharged her pilot, and would have arrived here on Sunday but for a severe N.E. gale of 24 hours duration, off Cape Hatteras. She would have thus made the voyage in six days, and anticipated the mail four days.

The Pacific has proved herself the fastest and one of the best boats on the Southern route. From her first voyage from this port, she has been in constant service, never having been idle more than four days at a time during the whole period. She beat the Georgi thirty-six hours, on her last trip from Havasu to Cheyenne, which was a greatfeat, as the latter was considered, previously, to be at the head of all competitors.

ANOTHER QUICK PASSAGE.—The splendid New York clipper ship, White Sloop, Capt. Lockwood, arrived at San Francisco, from Rio, on the 8th of January, after a short passage of 124 days from this port. Having lost her topmast, three days out, she put into Rio for repairs, and made the passage thence in the remarkably short space of 72 days.
